

Lex in the City

Long-term (Self)Representations of Justice and Public Reconciliation in the Low Countries and in Belgium

Workshop organized by the IAP research networks
'Justice & Populations: The Belgian Experience in International Perspective' and 'City & Society in the Low Countries (1200-1850)'

Brussels, Royal Library of Belgium, 17 December 2015

- 9:30-10:00 Welcome coffee
- 10:00-10:30 Introduction by Aude Musin & Xavier Rousseaux (UCL)
- 10:30-10:50 Jonas Roelens (UGent)
'Avec tout le secret possible.' Changing Attitudes towards Sodomy Executions in the Eighteenth-Century Southern Low Countries
- 10:50-11:20 Xavier Rousseaux (UCL) & Jérôme de Brouwer (ULB)
Death in the City. Long-term Representations of Capital Punishment in the Belgian Space (18th-20th c.)
- 11:20-12:00 Comments and discussions by Stanislas Horvat (RMA)
- 12:00-13:00 Lunch
- 13:00-13:20 Quentin Verreycken (UCL-USLB)
Staging Mercy in a Theatre State. The Use of Legal Pardons by the Dukes of Burgundy (1386-1482)
- 13:20-13:40 Colin Dupont (KUL-KBR) & Imke Hansen (KBR)
Cartography and Justice: Development of a Representation
- 13:40-14:20 Comments and discussions by Éric Bousmar (USLB)
- 14:20-15:00 Amandine De Burchgraeve (UCL), Gaëlle Dubois (UCL) & Stefan Huygebaert (UGent)
A Triple Experience of Justice: The Nineteenth-Century Cour d'Assises's Architecture, Iconography and Spectacle
- 15:00-15:20 Comments and discussions by Antoon Vrints (UGent)
- 15:20-15:45 Coffee break
- 15:45-16:15 Conclusions by Marc Boone (UGent)

Attendance is free but registration is required before 10 December 2015 at Jelle.DeRock@UGent.be.